

WARNING!

9 IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO ASK AN ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR! BEFORE YOU HIRE ONE!

1. Are you Licensed?

Before an electrical contractor begins work on your home, you should always make sure he or she is a licensed electrician. This license guarantees the person has experience in the field and has the experience and expertise to fix your problem.

NO MAYBE YES

2. Are you insured?

In addition to licensing, an electrician should also be insured. This protects both you and the electrician from any further disputes if anything goes wrong with the electrician's work.

NO MAYBE YES

3. Do you have any references?

References are one of the most important aspects of selecting the best electrician, as this ensures the contractor has a group of satisfied customers willing to acknowledge his or her work is up to par.

NO MAYBE YES

4. Have you worked on this particular type of problem before?

It is always a good idea to ask the electrician if he or she has worked on the same type of problem before, as this ensures the contractor has experience fixing the same type of issue.

NO MAYBE YES

5. What guarantee do you offer?

Most offer some type of guarantee, which means if there are any problems with their work the contractor agrees to fix it. For your peace of mind, make sure the one you use does.

NO MAYBE YES

6. Can you provide a written and detailed quote?

It is always good to obtain a detailed written quote. This helps you to understand what work is needed and any exclusions noted, so you know upfront avoiding any nasty surprises.

NO MAYBE YES

7. Do you use quality products?

By using quality products the job lasts longer and there is less chance of any problems occurring. This results in saving you money and time in the long-term.

NO MAYBE YES

8. What precautions do you take to protect my property?

It is important that your property is protected during the installation and safety precautions are taken.

NO MAYBE YES

9. Has the contractor had a police check?

NO MAYBE YES

Choosing the best electrical contractor for your specific needs is usually a matter of asking the right questions to ensure you select the right person for the task.
